A Letter from the Editors

To the Class of 2002,

It was just yesterday- does that phrase sound familiar?- that we walked into the halls of Wakefield High as freshmen who never believed four years could go by so fast. Soon we will be taking another step in our lives, wherever that may lead.

For us, looking back into the Class of 2002's history, we have come across memories that we hope will always have a place in your heart. Think about it... Freshman year was a typical year of new beginnings, new classes, new teachers, and new friends. As a sophomore year rolled around we grew up... a little. We were able to experience school unity when the Warrior Football Team won the Superbowl and the class of 2002 began to have some Warrior pride. Junior year our school pride was damaged when threats were made, but we joined together and made the best of a bad situation.

Our senior year goes down in history, not just because we are finally moving on, but because of the events of September 11th, our outlook on life has changed. We now realize how fragile life has become and how we must appreciate every waking day. Besides the Senior Show, the Prom, Homecoming, the football games, the Scavenger Hunt, and even Graduation, the year 2002 has proven to be a transitional year for all.

You will probably be sitting at home, whether six months from now or twenty-five years down the line, looking at the yearbook and laughing at the pictures. We had a pretty good time here at WHS and we hope that your future proves to be just as good or even better. Thanks for the memories and good luck to the Class of 2002!

In Memory of All The Victims of 9/11
Forever Scarred

I close my eyes, with the first shed of a tear,
Not knowing whether it's from sadness or from fear.
The terror started with the burst of a flame and the shatter of glass,
But did not end when the tower came barreling down in concrete mass.
In a fleeting moment, we looked to blame certain creed or race.
When what we should be doing is groping for one's embrace.

Out of this tragedy, our nation will not bend.
But the holes in our hearts are too big to possibly mend.
So many lives passed on today too many to even count.
The questions pile up, to an inexplicable amount.
We want answers to these questions, we pursue, we demand!
There is nothing we can't do, for there are reasons we may never understand.

It is a desperate struggle to cope with the pain and the sorrow.
We will forever strive to carry on the days of tomorrow.
The staggering country is overwhelmed with the shock and disbelief,
Impacting families of dying loved ones, possessing most of the grief.

I do not know the victims, but we have a special bond.
Every night I will pray for them, to reach Heaven's Gates or beyond.
When you see God, rise and firmly stand.
Not for one second, should you hesitate to take His hand.
Walk with Him, toward the blinding lights,
Where there are no more wars, and no more fights.

Generations ahead will never feel our present horror and rage.
For them it will be another topic of history, a mere flip of the page...

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

Dear Graduates of the Class of 2002:

Congratulations on your successful completion of high school. In a sense, I too join you in this completion. On January 28th, my 39 year career in education comes to a close. Thus, I share with you the anxiety of the years ahead-hoping for the fulfillment of dreams and wishes. I hope to continue to give of my energies to assist others, and I invite you to think about the importance of being a person who cares about his fellow man.

September 11th ushered in your senior year and altered all of our futures. Having experienced the loss of a sense of security, we have had to examine what is truly important to us. If world peace is to be realized, your creativity, knowledge, and perseverance will be essential. Strive to understand others, but start with your own family. Remember that their contributions and sacrifices assisted your emerging maturity. Never allow good communication to break down.

Four years ago I addressed you as "young adults." As you pass into full adulthood, live your dreams and reach for the golden ring. You have earned it!

*The days are becoming shorter
While the darkness creeps over night
Leaving no salvation
While removing all the light.*

*The Harvest moon glistens
Upon the cool autumn air
Leaving blankets of morning dew
While all the trees go bare.*

*For no one can hinder
Nature's constant revolution
For some problems revolve
That have no solution.*

*The leaves will turn to snow
And the snow will turn to ice
While the last leaves on the branches will fall
Before they are all covered in white.*

*Time will go on
And the ice will turn to rain
Everything will be uncovered
And the cycle will go on again.*

*As the seasons change
My life will go on too
Because my future is ever changing
With the skies varying hues.*

*And in a year another girl will stand
But she will not be me
And she will wait for her life to begin
Under those towering trees.*

*Another small town girl
With dreams she wants to achieve
Another girl who's scared to death
Of where her life will lead.*

*And when I return
I'll visit those trees
And I will repay my debts
My only wish- is simply this,
I wish to have no regrets.*

In most of these write-ups kids talk of the best times in high school, never looking beyond Wakefield. Stuck in the thinking of events in school, dances, games, parties. With this said I pledge we let go of the past and together look forward to a new life of unity, maturity and peace! Never forget the power of your education, your actions, and your voice.

Student Council

The 2001-2002 year was a big year for the Wakefield High School Student Council. Starting the year off with the Homecoming game and dance, the Student Council also spent time at Project Adventure in Andover, and working on the annual Adopt-A-Family during the Christmas season. The Council also held the Blacklight Dance, which had a great turnout and was a success. In April, thirty members of the WHS Student Council are heading to New York City to help with the World Trade Center Relief Fund, aiding police officers and firefighters, bringing food to shelters, and working with people affected by the events of September 11th. Below are pictures from the Student Council's trip to Project Adventure.

Have you ever seen "The Mighty Ducks" in a cheering team? This year the winter cheerleaders, lead by Maura Allard, Kim Morabito, and Lauren Weiss, started from scratch with a fresh new team, went coed, and proved themselves worthy to WHS by placing 2nd in the Revere Invitational and 2nd in the Middlesex League Competition, making them eligible to move on and compete at Regionals. Encountering numerous obstacles along the way, they certainly can attest to the quote, "Hard work pays off."
